

A satellite with solar panels is shown in space, emitting two powerful beams of light that converge towards the bottom right. Along the path of these beams, three large, fiery orange and red explosions are depicted, suggesting a conflict or destruction in space. The background is a deep black space filled with numerous small white stars.

War in Space

---

THE MILITARIZATION OF THE FINAL FRONTIER

5:00 – 6:15 P.M.

OCTOBER 25, 2016

COMMUNITY ROOM

For decades, the United States and other nations have engaged in a struggle for military dominance in the heavens above. We will explore the past, present and future of this “shadow space race.”

Presented by Will Holsclaw, FRCC International Affairs Club President

A curved horizon of the Earth is visible at the bottom of the poster, showing a blue ocean and green landmasses under a thin white atmosphere.

To request access accommodations due to a disability, please call 303.678.3922, at least five business days prior to this event.

The logo for Front Range Community College, featuring a stylized white mountain range silhouette above the college's name.

FRONT RANGE
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

BOULDER COUNTY CAMPUS

BCC DESIGN AGENCY